VINEYARD

The grapes for this wine are sourced from Opolo's estate vineyards in Paso Robles. Cooling breezes from the nearby Pacific Ocean contribute foggy mornings and lower summer temperatures, which produces exceptional, expressive fruit.

WINEMAKING

The grapes is handpicked at night to ensure that the fruit arrives at the winery very cold. The grapes are delicately destemmed and crushed ever so slightly in order to split the skin. The resulting must is cold soaked for 4 days before being warmed and fermented. After 20 days of fermentation the wine is gently pressed, settled and racked to barrel for 15 + months

WINEMAKER NOTES

Close your eyes and take a sip and you will be transported to the sun-soaked valleys of Rioja, Spain. A decadent nose of plum compote spiced with cinnamon, clove, vanilla and cedar. Medium bodied with velvety tannins that finishes with black cherry and white pepper.
